And you're on the same path now.

An aerial photograph of a university campus during autumn. The scene is filled with trees displaying vibrant orange, yellow, and red foliage. In the center, a large, light-colored building with a prominent steeple stands out. Surrounding it are various other campus buildings, including a large, modern structure with a flat roof and several smaller, older buildings. A winding road or path cuts through the campus, and a large green lawn is visible on the right side. The overall atmosphere is serene and picturesque.

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED. REGIONALLY ACCREDITED.

We take our reputation seriously. Kansas State University is regionally accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, or HLC, of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and has held this accreditation since 1916.

Why is accreditation important?

Reputable, trusted accreditation validates the quality of an institution as a whole, offering evaluated measurements of everything, including academic offerings, governance, administration, mission, finances and resources.

K-State is a comprehensive, research, public land-grant institution that was founded in 1863. Continuing education at Kansas State University originated through the Kansas Cooperative Extension Service, which was tasked with extending the university to the people. Out of our Extension roots, the Kansas Board of Regents established the K-State Division of Continuing Education in 1966, later renamed K-State Global Campus. K-State Global Campus serves as the administrative home for K-State Online.

DIFFERENT FORMAT. SAME DIPLOMA.

Whether you earn a degree online or on campus, you'll receive the same diploma when you graduate, with no indication of how your courses were delivered. Signed by the university president and provost and stamped with the university seal, your diploma is more than just a piece of paper – it's a symbol of your hard work and persistence.

QUALITY COURSES AND EXPERIENCED INSTRUCTORS

Our online courses are taught by the same experienced instructors who teach our on-campus courses. That means your syllabus, assignments and projects will look very similar to those you would receive if you were taking a class on campus. We're continuously striving to improve our online courses to take advantage of new and better technologies and online teaching strategies that will improve your learning experience and increase your chances of success.

INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE.

Some courses may require you to take proctored exams. These are exams taken online or on paper that must be taken in the presence of a proctor to ensure academic integrity. This is common practice for online programs to meet accreditation requirements.

FINDING AN EXAM PROCTOR

Some courses require a proctor for exams, while others do not. Check for an email from the Student Success and Advising Office once you enroll in a course to determine if you are required to find a proctor.
